Flies grounded
Exponential perceptions Of happiness compounded

* we explored all our options * and decided to adopt them

you took me under your wing when things got really ugly duckling so its to you that I dedicate my every waking / sleeping moment;
I can hardly wait for the minute, when we get to open pandora's box together...

Its totally amazing :: our synchrony
But more amazing is our mutual understanding I've never met another person,
Who so openly accepted my personal situation(s) and preference(s)

You're my muse and my bride,
My partner and compatriot;
You're my lover and my fighter,
My best friend and my support system.

Its YOU that makes me endlessly inspired!!!!

The "you" that is changing every minute
- With every passing moment - We become more of a coexisting unit Not unhealthily codependent but rather:

- Interconnected, bound, and accepting - and although I miss your presence, your physical love and attention, we still grow stronger every minute...

Each is another step on the path,
To completing our mission!

1 + 1 = infinity
