

Hurtling forward at untold speeds
 We broke for nothing
- accept our feelings - which we clutched and encouraged we climbed to those rarified, regal heights hither-to-fore unbeknownst to the likes of us... where horizons of destiny run their race to liminality such incredible vistas lay open before US

I can hardly wait 'til WE are Together
An 'irresistible force'
 And we share a bed, a closet, and a toilet ☺
For us: nothing could spoil it

This is what they mean,
 By "manifest destiny"
How things run their circuits -
 Of difference and purpose
Only to return as the forever different
 And then condense in the present;
As new journeys and experiments,
As new traces and world-events
 Such is the beauty,
 Of chance and impermanence

...You're my definition of evolving elegance...

 you bring me hope for this world filled with 'weaponry' because you and I,
 focus on 'livingry.'

And would support each other through anything
No matter whether:

Tidal waves, twisters, tornadoes, or monsoons

We co-exist so beautifully!
Through so many diverse nodes of activity
Sleeping crystal showers finally tasted
And savored for their flavor

Indeed

Just your smell can make me 'hungry'
And I'll grasp myself – firmly It's the idea of you that entices me
Your glow of prowess and luscious energy;

My imagination

R u n s ... o f f ... W i L d

L y

... I can still feel myself inside of you ...

an orgasm of loving memories
I'm such a junkie

For your pleasure, see
Just how much you've helped ME to change ME
I eagerly await the day we can touch again,
When two become one
In infinity
